NEW BOOKS

When Gushers Go Dry
The Essentials of Oil & Gas Bankruptcy, 2nd Edition
This second edition offers an expanded discussion on the various players in the oil and gas industry, including new developments in financing and the treatment of oil and gas-related agreements. This new edition also provides practitioners with a better understanding of what happens when an oil, gas or other natural resources company goes bankrupt, presenting in detail the issues that are specific to this highly specialized industry.

Representing the Creditors’ Committee
A Guide for Practitioners
Written by members of ABI’s Unsecured Trade Creditors Committee, this manual details the myriad challenges that professionals representing creditors’ committees face as they try to give holders of general unsecured claims a voice in whether a debtor will be reorganized, sold as a going concern or liquidated. This invaluable resource offers guidance on how to maximize the value of a debtor’s assets, and offers practical tips at every step of the chapter 11 process, from the filing of a case through confirmation and beyond.

Bankruptcy in Practice, 5th Edition
This major update to one of ABI’s most popular books bridges the divide between classroom theory, courtroom procedure and conference room negotiation, and provides analysis on important recent case law, such as Till, ASARCO, RadLAX and LaSalle. Although intended as a comprehensive introduction to bankruptcy, even experienced counsel will find it a refreshing read and not merely a reference to be consulted.

Credit Bidding in Bankruptcy Sales
A Guide for Lenders, Creditors, and Distressed-Debt Investors
Accessible to those who are unfamiliar with or only dabble from time to time in the bankruptcy realm, while still being informative to regular insolvency practitioners, this book provides a general overview of credit bidding in bankruptcy. It also examines how court opinions — in RadLAX, Philadelphia Newspapers and other cases — have influenced the application of credit bidding in bankruptcy.

Get Published
Publishing with ABI is an excellent way to market yourself and your firm across a broad spectrum of insolvency professionals while contributing your valuable expertise toward insolvency education. As ABI is an educational nonprofit association, publishing is one of ABI’s most important missions. If you are interested in contributing a manuscript for publication, please contact ABI’s Director of Communications James Carman or Deputy Executive Director Amy Quackenboss at (703) 739-0800, and we’ll help you get started.

Support abi Publications: Become a Book Sponsor
ABI relies on the generosity of ABI members to sponsor its books. Each book sponsorship begins at $500 (for which each sponsor receives complimentary copies). Some author firms have sponsored entire printings ($5,000), and ABI can work with firms and other organizations on various sponsorship arrangements. For more information, contact ABI’s Director of Communications or Deputy Executive Director at (703) 739-0800.

Increase Your Visibility: Become an abi Publishing Partner
There is no better way to connect with your key customers in the insolvency community than by partnering with ABI! To help you make more business connections and maximize your marketing budget, the ABI Publishing Partnership provides such benefits as:

• your firm’s name listed in all new books published throughout the year, along with five free copies of each
• banners and signage at ABI conferences and online at ABI’s bookstore
• your logo placed in promotional ads in the ABI Journal, and in ABI’s publications catalogs

Partnering with ABI Publications ensures that we can continue to provide high-quality books — and that your firm will be prominently associated with insolvency education and the trusted ABI name. For more information, contact ABI’s Director of Communications or Deputy Executive Director at (703) 739-0800.
