NEW BOOKS

A Practitioner's Guide to Liquidation and Litigation Trusts

An invaluable resource for lawyers and financial advisors, this Practice Guide provides an overview of how and when trust vehicles should be used to handle significant large-scale litigation matters and to liquidate other assets for the purpose of accumulating recoveries and distributing them across multiple claimants. The book includes an extensive appendix on a USB drive with 1,000 pages of sample case documents, plus a glossary and index.

Credit-Bidding in Bankruptcy Sales A Guide for Lenders, Creditors, and Distressed-Debt Investors

Designed to be accessible to those who are unfamiliar with or only dabble from time to time in the bankruptcy realm, while still being informative to those who regularly practice in the insolvency field, this book provides a general overview of credit-bidding in bankruptcy. It also examines how court opinions — in RadLAX, Philadelphia Newspapers and other cases — have influenced the application of credit-bidding in bankruptcy.

Chapter 15 for the Foreign Debtor

Covers all aspects of the UNCITRAL Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency, as well as chapter 15 of the Bankruptcy Code, and provides details about foreign representatives, avoidance actions, creditor protections, concurrent proceedings, comity and much more. The book also features an appendix on a USB drive with 500 pages of sample case documents.

Bankruptcy in Practice, 5th Edition

This major update to one of ABI's most popular books bridges the divide between classroom theory, courtroom procedure and conference room negotiation. Doctrine and practical counsel are blended in a unique treatment of bankruptcy law and process. New and nonspecialist lawyers — and nonlawyer professionals in particular — will find the book a lifeline to demystifying the arcane rules of the bankruptcy road. Experienced counsel will also find it a refreshing read, with references to new case law bringing fresh perspectives and insights on the practice of bankruptcy law.

Get Published

Publishing with ABI is an excellent way to market yourself and your firm across a broad spectrum of insolvency professionals while contributing your valuable expertise toward insolvency education. As ABI is an educational nonprofit association, publishing is one of ABI's most important missions. If you are interested in contributing a manuscript for publication, please contact ABI's Director of Communications James Carman or Deputy Executive Director Amy Quackenboss at (703) 739-0800, and we'll help you get started.

Support abi Publications: Become a Book Sponsor

ABI relies on the generosity of ABI members to sponsor its books. Each book sponsorship begins at $500 (for which each sponsor receives complimentary copies). Some author firms have sponsored entire printings ($5,000), and ABI can work with firms and other organizations on various sponsorship arrangements. For more information, contact ABI's Director of Communications or Deputy Executive Director at (703) 739-0800.

Increase Your Visibility: Become an abi Publishing Partner

There is no better way to connect with your key customers in the insolvency community than by partnering with ABI! To help you make more business connections and maximize your marketing budget, the ABI Publishing Partnership provides such benefits as:

- your firm's name listed in all new books published throughout the year, along with five free copies of each
- banners and signage at ABI conferences and online at ABI's bookstore
- your logo placed in promotional ads in the ABI Journal, and in ABI's publications catalogs

Partnering with ABI Publications ensures that we can continue to provide high-quality books — and that your firm will be prominently associated with insolvency education and the trusted ABI name. For more information, contact ABI's Director of Communication or Deputy Executive Director at (703) 739-0800.
