Chapter 11 Cases

The chapter 11 filing numbers continue to be propped up by the number of related filings associated with the larger cases. (Cases were considered related if they were filed on the same day, district and office with consecutive docket numbers.) More than one-half of the chapter 11 cases filed during the week were filed in Delaware (of the 152 cases nationwide, 79 were filed in Delaware).

Types of Chapter 11 Cases Filed

Subchapter V Cases: The First Four Months

The Small Business Reorganization Act of 2019 (SBRA) took effect on Feb. 19, 2020. With the creation of subchapter V, a streamlined path through chapter 11 has been provided for small business debtors.

No official (e.g., government) figures on subchapter V cases have been released to date. However, the Case Summary report in PACER indicates whether a case is considered a small business case and whether the debtor chose to proceed under subchapter V. A case-by-case review of PACER records of chapter 11 cases filed during the first four months that subchapter V was available showed the following:

- 471 subchapter V cases were filed.
- 127 other small business cases were filed where the debtor did not choose to proceed under subchapter V.
- Nearly 80 percent of small business chapter 11 debtors chose to proceed under subchapter V.
- About 190 different subchapter V trustees have been appointed in at least one case.

- No single trustee has received more than 10 cases yet (excluding related cases).
- At least one subchapter V case has been filed in 47 states, Washington, D.C., and Puerto Rico.
- The three states with no subchapter V cases to date are Rhode Island, Hawaii and Wyoming.

Subchapter V Cases by Month

February (19-29): 82 cases
March (full month): 122 cases
April (full month): 68 cases
May (full month): 114 cases
June (1-18): 85 cases
